This has a capacity of 7,500, but it's not clear how much of that may be allocated to MSI. We've reached out to a spokesperson and will update this article with a clearer indication of the amount of MSI tickets available.

This is a different venue to League of Legends esports' last big event in the UK, the Worlds 2015 quarter finals, which took place at Wembley Arena.

The Copper Box Arena has been home to several esports events over the years, including the Rocket League Spring Major 2023, and the Apex Legends Split 1 ALGS London LAN just last weekend, as well as other events in Clash Royale, Call of Duty and more, and the likes of DreamHack London.

In terms of the address of the Copper Box Arena, it's Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park, London, E20 3HB, and the nearest train station is Stratford.

What is the 'Defy' thing all about at MSI 2023?

A press release about MSI tickets sent to Esports News UK stated: "Defy expectations. Defy haters. Defy doubts. MSI is all about showcasing regional strength midway through the season. It's the first step toward greatness, pushing beyond limits and showing up with a spirit of defiance."
